The Culinary Arts Commission (CAC) was established in February 2020 to supervise the development of gastronomy and the advancement of its components. It also seeks to introduce Saudi dishes locally and globally, and to take pride in the culinary heritage and talent in this sector.

The main goals of the CAC are to identify and preserve culinary assets and heritage. This includes creating a registry for culinary arts and a program to preserve culinary heritage. To share and promote this cultural richness, the CAC focuses on creating original content and narratives, which involves building a culinary arts media library, developing narratives, promoting local businesses and menus, and engaging in international promotion and exchange.

The commission also aims to promote Saudi culinary experiences through initiatives like regional gastro tourism, flagship culinary events and local festivals.

Simultaneously, the CAC seeks to improve and promote the Saudi culinary profession. This includes programs to develop and promote culinary arts as well as enhancing Saudi food concepts.

Lastly, the commission strives to advance and innovate in production and culinary services. This involves improving the quality and distribution of culinary products through dedicated programs. The CAC also focuses on research, innovation, and development of Saudi culinary products and services.

Through these efforts, the Culinary Arts Commission hopes to preserve, promote and advance Saudi culinary heritage and innovation.

Simonelli Group, founded in 1936, is a leading company in the coffee sector that produces professional and home espresso coffee machines and coffee grinders through two brand names: Nuova Simonelli and Victoria Arduino. Since 1905 Victoria Arduino has been the preferred brand of those who want to offer an in-cup experience using coffee machines and grinders that have a unique design and are able to guarantee high-performance and top-quality extraction. Since 2015 Victoria Arduino has been proud sponsor of World Barista Championship with its coffee machines and grinders.

Eagle One by Victoria Arduino is the official coffee machine of Saudi National Barista Championship. Eagle One is the professional coffee machine dedicated to coffee shops where design, performance, and sustainability are determining factors to create a pleasant and memorable experience.

Eagle One is extraordinarily compact and adaptable to many different locations. Personality is a clue aspect that gives an essential value to the barista and to the shop itself. That is why Victoria Arduino made the personalization of the machine easy to do and adaptable to different environments that range from the classical type to the more glamorous and pop variety. The machine's design adjusts perfectly with various materials that can be natural like wood, or technological like steel, resins, or aluminum.

The ergonomic research of the Eagle One made it remarkably user-friendly, so the barista can work smoothly and provide an excellent coffee time for the client. Its new NEO (New Engine Optimization) engine uses an instant heating system using only the necessary amount of water for the extraction to be heated, thus reducing energy-related expenses and offering an excellent and consistent quality in the cup. The method is efficient and straightforward: the barista needs to set the temperature on display. The electronics of the machine does the rest, maintaining stable the temperature during the whole dispensing phase. Productivity and performance remain high, but consumption is considerably reduced.

Eagle One is perfectly balanced with design, innovation, and sustainability to provide a pleasant and memorable experience for the user and the customer.
